St. James's, April 30. The following Addresses have been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and the rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of Ely; presented by the Rt. Reverend the Bishop of Ely.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE who were deeply affected with the Danger with which Your Majesty's Kingdom was threatned by an Invasion, carried on at the Expence of the French King and of the Pope, by a Pretender to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain, to which Your Majesty hath a most rightful, just and legal Title; do now, with Hearts full of Joy, congratulate Your Majesty upon the Disappointment this Wicked Attempt hath met with, by the Wisdom and Vigilance of Your Majesty's Councils, and the Courage and Bravery of Your Arms; a Defeat most welcome to all your loyal Subjects, and very disgraceful to the haughty Undertakers, who in all places vainly boasted of the Certainty of their Success.

We most heartily promise your Majesty, that in all ways suitable to our Profession, we will defend your Person and Government; and most earnestly pray, that God would be pleas'd to continue you under the Care of his good Providence, and to defend you against all the wicked and malicious Designs of ungodly Men, and after a long and prosperous Reign here, to Crown you with a glorious Immortality; and that all the Blessings of Justice, Equity, Mercy, Peace and Plenty, which your Subjects enjoy under your gracious and wise Government, may in the Protestant Succession be convey'd down from Age to Age to their remote Posterity.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Arch-Deacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Chester; presented by the Right Reverend the Bishop of Chester.

May it please your sacred Majesty,

TO accept our most humble Thanks for your late great and seasonable Care of your People, which, by the blessing of God, so speedily prevented and frustrated the design'd Invasion of your Dominions, by the Pretender to your Crown, supported by a French Power, that it has put us upon the pleasing Necessity of laying before you our utter Abhorrence of so unjust and base a Design, and our Congratulations for the Disappointment of it, at the same time.

Your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, the Happiness which all your People enjoy under your benign Government, the Duty and Affection which they have for you in the highest Degree, and the watchful and almighty Providence of that God whom you so faithfully serve, will, we firmly trust, evermore be your Security and Protection against all Attempts of this kind: Nay, we cannot but hope that this, and all other such like Attempts, so mischievously design'd, will, in the End, turn to our great Advantage, by awakening in us a Sense of the Danger which we are in from our common Enemy, uniting us still closer to one another against him, and making us zealous to the utmost for the Preservation of every Part of our most excellent Constitution, which we find him so very zealous to destroy. And we do assure your Majesty, that we shall be careful to do all that in us lyes, to procure that this may be the blessed Effect of so bad a Cause.

May your Majesty long continue to be, as you now are, the Joy of your Subjects and Allies, and the Terror of your Enemies; the Ornament and Defence of the Protestant Religion, and particularly the Church of England by Law establish'd; the Guardian of the Protestant Succession, as now settled in the illustrious House of Hanover, and the Asserter and Restorer of the Rights and Liberties of all Europe.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital Burgesses and Freemen of Aldeburgh, in the County of Suffolk; presented to her Majesty by Sir Henry Johnson and William Johnson, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Boyle.

Most Dread Sovereign,

THAT Your Imperial Crown and Royal Diadem, and our Liberties and Properties, should be envy'd, and attempted to be subverted, by a Popish Pretender, and he therein supported by the grand Oppressor, is no Cause of Admiration; but that any of Your Subjects, who have receiv'd the benefit of Your Majesty's gentle and merciful Administration, of what sort or persuasion soever, should give the least Countenance thereunto, must be entertained with the greatest Abhorrence and Detestation; and as a Testimony thereof, we shall upon all Occasions exert our most fervent Zeal and vigorous Services, by sacrificing our Lives and Fortunes, not only against the present, but all other Pretenders, in Defence of your Majesty's most legal and undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms; firmly believing that the same Divine Providence that hath made the present Invasion vain and abortive, will render all future Attempts desperate and unsuccessful; that your Majesty, who is the glorious Defender of the Faith, the Preserver of the Liberties of Europe, and the Supporter of Distressed States and Princes, and your Royal Consort, by whose particular Care and Application the threatning Danger was so soon disappointed, makes us to take this Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Disappointment of so wicked an Enterprize; and we shall send up our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long reign over us, and be cloath'd with Glory and Victory over all your Foreign and Domestick Enemies. Given under our Common Seal the 19th Day of April, in the Seventh Year of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, Annoq; Domini, 1708.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Heritors and Freeholders in the Shire of Perth; presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland.

WE the Undersubscribing Justices of the Peace, Heritors and Freeholders in the Shire of Perth, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to take this Occasion to express our Horror and Detestation of the late Attempt of the French King, to disturb your Majesty's happy Reign, and ruin our Country by the intended Invasion: We can never enough express our Gratitude to your Majesty, for your vigilant Care and seasonable Assistance, which has not only disappointed the first Attempt; but we hope, by the Blessing of God, will disappoint all other Attempts that may be made. And we do most chearfully offer our Lives and Fortunes, for to maintain and defend your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, against all your Majesty's Enemies whatsoever. And since the Glory of uniting this Island has been reserved to your Majesty, we make no doubt but your Majesty will use your Endeavour, and take all proper Methods to make the same conduce and tend to the Happiness and Prosperity of this part of Britain, and to the general Advantage of the whole; that as we are under one civil Constitution, so we may be unite in Affections, and brought to one inseparable Interest therein. And we hope your Majesty will look upon all those who misrepresent us as disaffected to your Majesty's Interest and Government, or favouring any other Person than your Majesty, as your Enemies, and Disturbers of the publick Peace. And we pray God long to preserve your Majesty's happy Reign over us.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Jedburgh, and Inhabitants thereof; presented to her Majesty by the Lord Jedburgh, introduc'd by the Earl of Loudoun, Principal Secretary of State for Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your most faithful and loyal Subjects, being deeply sensible of the many great Advantages and unspeakable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's happy Government, particularly from the Union of these Nations, we being situate upon the Border, in former Ages upon the least Breach first expos'd to the Injuries of these Times by the frequent Burning and Devastation of our Burgh, and having a just Abhorrence of the pernicious Designs of the French King and his Abettors, to invade this part of your united Kingdom, break our Union, and to set up a Popish Pretender upon the Throne, to the utter Ruin and Overthrow of all our Interest, Sacred and Civil, humbly beg Leave to own and acknowledge your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Dominions thereto belonging.

We take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty that we are firmly resolv'd with our Lives and Fortunes to maintain and defend your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and Succession in the Protestant Line, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all his Adherents whatsoever.

May the Almighty God long preserve your Majesty's sacred Person, on whom depends the Security of the Protestant Religion, the Liberties of Europe, and Safety of these your Kingdoms; may your Arms continue to be Glorious and Successful, and may all the Designs and Contrivances of your Enemies prove still abortive, to your Majesty's Satisfaction, and to the Joy of all your good Subjects, and in particular of, &c.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Gentlemen, Heretors of the Shire of Dunbrittane; presented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun, principal Secretary of State for Scotland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, from a deep Sense of the many signal Blessings and special Advantages which we enjoy under Your Majesty's most happy Government, and from a just Abhorrence of the pernicious Designs of the French King and his Abettors, to Invade those Your Majesty's Kingdoms, and to set a popish Pretender on the Throne, to the utter Overthrow of all our valuable Interest, sacred and civil, humbly beg leave to own and acknowledge Your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and the Dominions thereto belonging.

We take this Opportunity to assure Your Majesty, that we are firmly resolv'd to the utmost of our Power, with our Lives and Fortunes to defend and maintain Your Majesty's sacred Person and lawful Authority, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all his Adherents whatsoever; and that on all Occasions we shall be ready to appear in Defence of the Protestant Succession, the true reform'd Religion, and Presbyterian Church Government as by Law Establish'd.

May Your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous, may Your Arms always be successful, may all the Designs and Contrivances of Your Majesty's Enemies still prove abortive, to the Satisfaction of Your Majesty, and Joy of all Your good Subjects, and in particular of, &c.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of Sarum; presented to her Majesty by the Bishop of Sarum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AS we utterly detest and abhor the late insolent Attempt to invade your Majesty's Dominions, so we (your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects) do most heartily Congratulate the happy Success of your Majesty's Conduct in its Defeat; and as we adore the Divine Providence in this Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, so it shall be our utmost Endeavour to secure your Majesty's rightful and lawful Title to these Realms, against the Pretender and all his Adherents, by instilling into the People committed to our Charge the true Principles of Religion and Loyalty, which may make them not only obedient, but zealously affected to your Majesty's Government, by the Laws of which our Religion is not only happily Establish'd, but also after your Majesty's most auspicious Reign (the Continuance of which is a Blessing to your Subjects, the most valuable upon Earth) the Succession in the Protestant Line, whereby the Establish'd Religion is secur'd to our Posterity, an Happiness next to that which our selves enjoy.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Arch-Deacons and Clergy of the Diocess of Exon.

May it please your Majesty,

IT was an agreeable Surprize to us, when, while upon occasion of the late intended Invasion of Your Majesty's Kingdoms by the Pretender, supported by a French Power, we were preparing to accompany the rest of Your Majesty's loyal Subjects in an humble Address to Your Majesty, declaring our Abhorrence of that Attempt, and to assure Your Majesty of our steady Loyalty, and firm Resolution to give our utmost Assistance for the Defence of the Sacred Person of Your Majesty, our rightful and most gracious Sovereign, the Support of Your Government, and the Maintenance of the Protestant Succession as by Law Establish'd, we receiv'd Advice, that that Cloud was no sooner gather'd than it was dispers'd; and that the Pretender himself was return'd to France, to carry thither the News of his own Disappointment.

We therefore now beg leave with most joyful Hearts to Congratulate Your Majesty upon this happy Turn of Affairs, though we are sensible we do at the same time Congratulate our selves too, whose Happiness depends, under God, on the Prosperity and Tranquility of Your Majesty's Reign.

May that God who has hitherto wonderfully bless'd Your Majesty in Your Endeavours to defend your Subjects, and to reduce the Exorbitant Power of France, continue his gracious Protection over Your Sacred Person, defeat all the wicked Designs of all Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, and prosper Your Fleets and Armies, with those of Your Allies, with Victory and Success, 'till You shall be able to settle Europe in a lasting Peace.

And that then Your Majesty, the Defender and the Ornament of the Establish'd Church, may long live in Health and Happiness, to enjoy the Fruit of Your Pious Labours, and always Reign in the Hearts of Your faithful People, made happy by Your Care and Wisdom, and ever continuing so under Your gracious Government, is the hearty Desire and Prayer of (may it please Your Majesty) Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of your ancient Corporation of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop; presented to her Majesty by Richard Hill, Esq;

YOUR Majesty having accomplish'd all that could be expected or wish'd from the late happy Revolution, in securing to your Subjects their Religious and Civil Rights, 'tis no Wonder you are become the Mark and Envy of those Arbitrary Powers that set up a Pretender to Invade your Dominions, and destroy both: But we, who are sensible of the Felicities of your Majesty's Government, and pay our humble Acknowledgments to Heaven and to you for the Blessings we enjoy under it, think it matter of the highest Astonishment, that any of your own Subjects could be brought into such an unnatural Design, to consent to Sacrifice the Peace and Liberty of their Country with the rest of Europe, to the Ambition of a restless Monarch, and a Pontiff infallible in nothing but his Avarice, without considering what must be expected from the Success of such Undertakers. One who hath made the Wealth and Power of his own Grandson subservient to his Will, and left that part of the Spanish Monarchy in his Possession nothing but its Name; the other, who to propagate his Faith or Interest, would involve your Subjects in Blood and Confusion, and whose Mercies are Cruelties. May such Enemies to our Religion, and Invaders of our Liberties, and all such as would betray us into their Hands, continue to meet with Shame and Disappointments answerable to the Injustice of their Cause; and may your Majesty, whose Name will be sacred to Posterity, be preserv'd in a long and prosperous Reign; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will be always ready to contribute our utmost Assistance to these Ends. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto caus'd our Common Seal to be affix'd this 24th Day of April, in the Seventh Year of your Majesty's most gracious Reign.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Dundee; presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Dundee, conceiving a just Horror at the abhorr'd and treacherous Practices ftices of any of your Majeſty's Subjects, acted in Subſerviency to the wicked Deſigns and Attempts of declar'd Enemies againſt your Majeſty's Government, humbly crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our bearing a firm Allegiance to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. We have a deep Senſe of the great and good Things your Majeſty has done for and maintain'd unto us, and of that vigilant Care your Majeſty has expreſs'd in the effectual Diſappointment of the treacherous and bloody Deſigns of Enemies: It is owing to your Majeſty's ſpecial Care and Providence, under God, that the Bounds we live in is not at this time a Stage of bloody Confuſions, and that we were deliver'd before we were aware of Danger. It is an unqueſtionable Inſtance of the Lord's Goodneſs, not only to all within your Majeſty's Dominions, but to all Proteſtant Churches and People, that your Majeſty has been ſet upon the Throne of theſe Nations, whoſe undoubted and rightful Title to the Crown we acknowledge, aſſert, and will maintain to the utmoſt of our Power, in our Places and Stations, againſt all Pretenders, particularly againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, who, ſupported with a French Power, has lately eſſay'd the Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions, and the Diſturbance of the Peace thereof, to the hazarding of all our ſacred and civil Intereſts; we judge our ſelves in Duty bound to maintain, in our ſelves, a grateful Senſe of the Mercy of your Majeſty's Government, and of the ſignal Bleſſings and Benefits we enjoy under it; ſo we ſhall, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour to poſſeſs the Hearts of our People committed to our Miniſterial Care, with a true Zeal for our holy Religion, and a firm Loyalty to your Majeſty, their and our only rightful and lawful Sovereign, and with a juſt Deteſtation of all Deſigns and Practices for the Subverſion of your Majeſty's Throne, and for advancing a Popiſh Pretender thereto.

That the moſt High may grant your Majeſty a long and happy Reign, defeat all the Projects and Devices of Enemies againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, maintain what he hath wonderfully wrought for us, ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion, make your Majeſty the glorious Inſtrument of ſettling Peace and Truth, not only in your own Dominions, but over all Europe, is and ſhall be the ſincere Prayer of, &c.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury and Freeholders of your County of Worceſter, aſſembled together at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, held for the ſaid County at Worceſter the 13*th Day of* April, in the ſeventh Year of your Reign; preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Shrewſbury, Lord-Lieutenant of that County.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects do humbly beg Leave to repeat the Aſſurances of our firm Allegiance and Fidelity to your ſacred Majeſty, as the lawful and rightful Sovereign of theſe Kingdoms; and to declare, as we do from the bottom of our Hearts, our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late intended Invaſion of your Dominions by a Popiſh Pretender, educated in a French Court, ſupported by a French Power, and follow'd by Iriſh Papiſts, and others of your Majeſty's traiterous Subjects, whoſe wicked Principles, or deſperate Fortunes, put them upon attempting the diſturbing of the Peace and Quiet of theſe your Majeſty's Realms.

And we do again moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, That no Danger ſhall deterr or diſcourage us from paying our Duties to your Majeſty, but that we will at all times, unanimouſly and heartily endeavour, in our ſeveral Capacities, to preſerve the Peace of this your County, and to the utmoſt of our Power, will defend and ſupport your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion by Law Eſtabliſh'd, againſt the ſaid Pretender, and all Oppoſers whatſoever.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſs of Cloyn, in the Kingdom of Ireland, has been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid Kingdom, and by him preſented to her Majeſty.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Vienna, April 18. N. S. The Government having diſcover'd, from the Examination of ſome Hungarian Priſoners, that Incendiaries have been ſent abroad with Orders to ſet on Fire ſeveral Houſes in different Corners of this Town, a narrow ſearch has been made theſe two Days paſt after all Strangers that can give no good Account of themſelves; and Orders have been given to the Inhabitants of the Town and Suburbs to keep a ſtrict Watch over their Houſes in the Night.

Some Days ago there paſs'd by this Place a great Number of Boats for Hungary, laden with all ſorts of Grain, to be diſtributed in the Magazines of Presburg, Javarin and Comorra, for the Subſiſtence of the Imperial Army.

General Heiſter, at the Head of ſome Dragoons and Huſſars, has given Chace to the Malecontents that block'd up Ebenfurt and Oedenburg, and is ſince return'd hither.

Letters from Alba Regalis of the 29th of the laſt Month bring Advice, That on the 24th a Detachment of the Garriſon, reinforc'd by ſome Citizens, had ſally'd out upon the Hungarians who kept that Place block'd up, and that having ſurpriz'd their Advanc'd Guard, they kill'd ſeveral of them, and put the reſt to flight. They who fled had not time in the Surprize to mount on Horſeback, but left as Prey to the Garriſon 122 Horſes, three Standards and ſome few Priſoners. There are Advices from the Frontiers of Moravia, That the Hungarians have made an Inroad there in two ſeveral Places; That they have plunder'd about nine Villages, ſet Fire to others, and carry'd off all the Booty they could find.

Vienna, April 25, N. S. On the 23d Inſtant about 10 a Clock at Night the Marriage between the King of Spain and the Princeſs of Woltenbuttel was ſolemniz'd at a Country Church call'd St. Mary Jetzing, which is about a League from this Town, the Emperor ſtanding Proxy for his Catholick Majeſty. The Emperor, with the Empreſs Conſort, and Princeſs, din'd that Day at Schönbrunn, whither the Empreſs Dowager and the Arch-Dutcheſſes her Daughters went in the Afternoon; and in the Evening the Bride her ſelf ſet out dreſs'd in her Wedding Garment, which, as well as that of the Emperor, was made after the Spaniſh Faſhion. The Proceſſion of the Court to Church was in the following Order:

The Empreſs Dowager, with her three Daughters, went, as in private, a little before the reſt of the Court; in the next place the Emperor, preceded by the chief Miniſters of the Court, and follow'd by the Empreſs and Bride, the latter walking on the Left Hand of the Empreſs; the Queen's Train was carried by the Princeſs of Lichtenſtein, Wife to Prince Anthony of Lichtenſtein; the two young Arch-Dutcheſſes, Daughters to the preſent Emperor, took the next rank. The Emperor, Empreſs Conſort and Bride went into the ſame Coach, the Bride ſitting backwards. When they came to the Church Door, the Bride was conducted in between the two Empreſſes, the Emperor walking before, and the five Arch-Dutcheſſes in their Ranks after them. The Cardinal of Saxe-Zeits, aſſiſted by four Biſhops, perform'd the Ceremony of joining them in Marriage. After the Office of Matrimony was ended, Te Deum was ſung under a triple Diſcharge of a Battery of 36 Pieces of Cannon, planted near the Church on purpoſe for that Solemnity. The Bride was reconducted to her Coach in the ſame manner that ſhe was brought into Church. At the Church Door ſhe took leave of the Emperor, the Empreſſes, and the Arch-Dutcheſſes, and went into her Coach attended only by the Princeſs of Lichtenſtein, and lay that Night at a Gentleman's Houſe call'd Haderſtorf. The Imperial Court return'd to Schonbrunn, and next day went and din'd with the Queen of Spain at Haderſtorf. Moſt of the Foreign Miniſters took leave of the Queen the Day before ſhe left Vienna. The Deputies of the States of Lower Auſtria, the Miniſters of the Imperial Court, and ſome others, took leave of her Majeſty yeſterday at Haderſtorf. This Morning ſhe continu'd her Journey to Spain; her Mother is to meet her as ſhe paſſes thro' Bavaria, and there to take leave of her.

The Prince of Lorrain, who has the Care of conducting the Queen, goes no farther than Genoa, where her Catholick Majeſty is to be receiv'd by the Officers of King Charles's Court. The Queen has about 500 Perſons in her Train, of which 200 are to return from the Place where ſhe takes Ship. Baron Imhoff, the Duke of Wolfenbuttel's Miniſter, accompanies her Majeſty to Spain.

Major-General Palmes arriv'd here laſt Night.

Hanover, April 27. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough left the Hague on Sunday in the Evening, and arriv'd the next Night at Almelo, on Tueſday at Schape, Wedneſday at Diepenau, and yeſterday in the Evening came to this Place, Prince Eugene having join'd my Lord Duke at the laſt Stage. At Night their Highneſſes had Audience of the Elector, the Electreſs and Prince Electoral, from whence they were both conducted to Apartments in the Court. They have this Day been in Conference with the Miniſters.

Hague, May 4. N. S. On Sunday in the Afternoon the Conferences ended at Hanover. Prince Eugene went immediately for Vienna, intending to take the Way
